Conditions and Enrolment

How to enrol

Complete the application form on the back page. Send this to ELC with a deposit of £200 or full fees. No deposit can be returned, transferred to an earlier or later course or to another student. If you send full fees, £200 of the payment acts as a deposit and is subject to ELC's terms and conditions relating to cancellation.

On receipt of the application form and payment, ELC will send you a confirmation of booking and an invoice. The remaining balance of the course fees (i.e. less the deposit already paid) must be paid for the whole period of booking at least three weeks before the start of your course; we cannot guarantee a place on the course unless full fees have been received.

Please note: If you are enrolling on a course starting within three weeks, you must send full fees with your application form.

Cancellation before arrival

You must inform ELC in writing and return your letter of confirmation.

If you cancel more than 14 days before the start of the course you will only forfeit your deposit. If you cancel less than 14 days before the start of your course you will forfeit your deposit and one week's tuition fees.

If accommodation costs have been paid to ELC, these will be refunded in full.

Payment

ELC can accept payment by foreign cheques if drawn on a UK bank, or by the following credit/charge cards: Mastercard, Visa or by direct transfer to the ELC bank account using AFTS (Automatic Funds Transfer System)

Cancellation after arrival

Fees cannot be refunded for any course which has already started (including Study Year Programme).

Full fees will be refunded if you cancel a course which has not started, so long as you cancel at least 14 days before the start of the course. No refund will be given if you cancel less than 14 days before the start of your course. If accommodation costs have been paid to ELC, these will be refunded in full so long as adequate notice has been given (see section on homestay accommodation page 18).
